Defendant Sentenced
State appears by Johnson. Defendant appears in person and by Hickman. Sentencing Assessment report received, filed and considered. Plea of guilty is accepted. Punishment fixed at: Count 3: Ten years in DOC. Allocution, Judgment and Sentence. Sentence to be served concurrently with any sentence now being served in Department of Corrections. In response to inquiry by the Court, the State has previously asked the Court, under the particular circumstances of this case, to accept the negotiations between the parties and to accept what is essentially a plea bargain between the State and defendant. Per the position of the State and per what is essentially a plea bargain between the State and defendant, execution of sentence is suspended and Defendant placed on probation to be supervised by MO State Board of Probation and Parole for five years with standard conditions and special conditions as listed in SAR. Civil Judgment in accordance with law. The State dismisses Counts 1 and 2. Defendant advised of rights under Supreme Court Rule 24.035 and inquiry conducted as to assistance of counsel. Court finds no probable cause to believe Defendant has not been effectively represented by counsel. Defendant admonished. Cause set for probation status hearing on June 17, 2019, 10:30 a.m., Division 2. Attorney Hickman remains in the case as attorney of record for defendant. RJH/DIV II (DB)

State appears by Caldera. Defendant appears in person and by Hickman. Defendant withdraws previously entered plea of not guilty and enters plea of guilty to Count 3. Court finds that plea of guilty has been freely and voluntarily entered with understanding of nature of charges, range of punishment and consequences thereof. Court further finds that Defendant has knowingly and intelligently waived certain rights and that Defendant has had effective assistance of counsel. Sentencing assessment report ordered returnable March 6, 2019. Final disposition set for March 18, 2019, 1:30 p.m., Division 2. Defendant moves for ROR and is not opposed to home detention with electronic monitoring. State is not opposed to ROR with home detention and electronic monitoring with certain conditions. The Court is prepared to grant ROR with home detention and electronic monitoring with all regular conditions and special conditions, including no contact with D.W., A.M and L.W and not to be on the premises of residence or place of employment of D.W., A.M. and L.W. The Court orders home detention study. Notice of this order to Adult Court Services for home detention/electronic monitoring study. RJH/II (MC)
